

It's very important that Sinclair Broadcasting be stopped from using their ownership of broadcasting stations to support one candidate for the presidency.

The FCC must use its authority to protect the public ownership of the airways, and to ensure that both sides in this presidential election are presented fairly and equally.

Timing is everything in this matter.

Thank you so much for your careful attention to this matter.